2. Basis of contract

- 2.1 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Products and/or Services in accordance with these Terms and Conditions, which are deemed accepted by the Customer by submitting an Order, regardless of whether the Customer signs a separate copy of these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.2 The Order shall only be deemed accepted, and the Contract formed, when Boston issues written acceptance of the Order. Submission of a pro forma invoice by Boston shall not constitute acceptance of an Order.
- 2.3 Any samples, drawings, descriptive matter or advertising issued by Boston and any descriptions of the Products or illustrations or descriptions of the Services contained in Boston's brochures, websites, or any other media are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Products and Services described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract nor have any contractual force.
- 2.4 These Terms and Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Customer seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing. These Terms and Conditions supersede all previous versions of these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.5 If these Terms and Conditions are incorporated by reference into any other form of agreement between Boston and the Customer and that other agreement is currently in effect at the time the Contract is made, so that the Contract constitutes a contract for the purposes of that agreement, the terms and conditions of the agreement will prevail in the event, but only to the extent, of any conflict of meaning with these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.6 Any quotation given by Boston shall not constitute an offer, and is only valid for a period of 15 calendar days from its date of issue, unless otherwise specifically stated in the quotation, and is subject to availability of any Products and/or Services quoted.

2.7 The Customer waives any right it might otherwise have to rely on any term endorsed upon, delivered with or contained in any documents of the Customer that is inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions.

2.8 No Order accepted by Boston may be cancelled by the Customer without Boston's prior written consent and may incur a restocking fee. The Customer shall indemnify Boston in full against all loss (including loss of profit), costs (including the cost of all labour and materials used), damages, charges and expenses incurred by Boston as a result of such cancellation. The Customer understands that the return of Products for credit refund is at Boston's discretion and accepts that in certain cases return of Products would not be possible.

3. Products

3.1 The Products are described in Boston's quotation as modified by any applicable SoW or otherwise as described in the Order or SoW.

3.2 To the extent that the Products are to be manufactured or configured in accordance with a SoW supplied by the Customer, the Customer shall indemnify Boston against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by Boston arising out of or in connection with any claim made against Boston for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights arising out of or in connection with Boston's use of the SoW. This clause 3.2 shall survive termination of the Contract.

3.3 Boston reserves the right to amend the Order or SoW if required by any applicable statutory or regulatory requirement, and Boston shall notify the Customer in any such event.

3.4 When computer equipment is connected to a public network, i.e., a switchboard or telephone network, certain regulations of the telecommunications provider apply. It is the sole responsibility of the Customer to ensure compliance with all such regulations.

4. Delivery of Products

4.1 Boston shall deliver the Products EXW Boston Premises (Incoterms® 2020 Rules), or such other location and terms as the Parties may agree as confirmed in writing by Boston at any time before Boston notifies the Customer that the Products are ready.

4.2 Boston may require the Customer to provide authorisation in writing of any change of Delivery Address.

4.3 Any Delivery Dates quoted for delivery of the Products are approximate only, and the time of delivery is not of the essence. While Boston will use all reasonable endeavours to meet the Delivery Date, it will not be liable for any loss or damage (including loss of use, loss of contract or loss of profits) incurred by the Customer as a result of any failure to deliver on such particular date. Any estimated delivery times will not start until the earlier of receipt of any payment due or the issue of a sales order (SO) number to the Customer.

4.4 Requests by the Customer to change the Delivery Address must be notified to Boston no later than 5 working days prior to the date quoted for delivery of the Products, and are subject to approval by Boston (at its sole discretion). Any additional costs arising in relation to a change of Delivery Address are the responsibility of the Customer and Boston is not liable for any delays or damages resulting from any change of Delivery Address.

4.5 If Boston fails to deliver the Products, the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy shall be to recover from Boston the reasonable direct costs incurred in obtaining replacement goods of similar description and quality in the cheapest available market, subject to a cap equal to the price of the Products that were not delivered. Boston shall have no liability for any failure to deliver the Products to the extent that such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event, the Customer's failure to provide adequate delivery instructions, or any other Customer Default relevant to the supply of the Products. In any event, Boston's liability under this clause shall not exceed the cap set out in Clause 13.7.

- 4.6 If the Customer fails to take delivery of the Products tendered in accordance with the Contract, then except where such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event or by Boston's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract in respect of the Products:
- (a) delivery of the Products shall be deemed to have been completed at 9.00 am on the Delivery Date; and
 - (b) Boston shall store the Products until actual delivery takes place, and charge the Customer for all related costs and expenses (including insurance and transportation charges).
- 4.7 If ten Business Days after the Delivery Date the Customer has not accepted actual delivery of them, Boston may resell or otherwise dispose of part or all of the Products and, after deducting reasonable storage and selling costs and charge the Customer any shortfall below the price of the individual Products.
- 4.8 Boston may deliver the Products by instalments, which may be invoiced and paid for separately at the discretion of Boston. Each instalment shall constitute a separate contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment.
- 4.9 The Customer shall inspect the Products on delivery and shall within 1 Business Day of delivery notify Boston of any alleged shortage in quantity, damage or failure to comply with description or sample. If the Customer fails to notify Boston within such time the Products shall be conclusively presumed to be in accordance with the Contract.
- 4.10 If the Products are not in accordance with the Contract the sole remedy of the Customer shall be limited to Boston making good any shortage by replacing such Products or if Boston shall elect, by refunding a proportionate part of the Price.
- 4.11 The Customer shall be solely responsible for the proper disposal of any packaging materials associated with the Products purchased from Boston. Boston shall not be held liable for any costs, fines, or penalties incurred by the Customer due to improper disposal of packaging materials. Packaging should be recycled where possible.
- 5. Quality of Products
- 5.1 Where installation or Training is not included in the Price and not ordered by the Customer, the Customer will be solely responsible for this, and Boston disclaims all liability in this connection.
- 5.2 Where the Hardware includes data communications equipment and data transmission speeds are given in relation to any Product these are at all times subject to any conditions of the applicable telecommunications utility company relating to the use of the relevant modem at the speeds indicated and to the capacity of any of that company's equipment to which the Products are linked.
- 5.3 Where the Product is installed for use in conjunction with other products not supplied by Boston, the Customer will be solely responsible for ensuring that the Products are compatible with such other products, and Boston disclaims all liability in this connection.
- 5.4 Boston warrants that:
- (a) it has good title to or legal right to supply all Products supplied to the Customer; and
 - (b) for a period of one year from the Delivery Date (Warranty Period), the Products shall be free from material defects in materials and workmanship.
- 5.5 Boston will use reasonable endeavours to pass on to the Customer the benefit of any warranty or guarantee given by the manufacturer of the Products.
- 5.6 Subject to clause 5.9, if:
- (a) the Customer gives notice in writing to Boston during the Warranty Period within a reasonable time of discovery that some or all of the Hardware do not comply with the warranty set out in clause 5.4; and
 - (b) Boston has issued an appropriate authorisation; and

- (c) Boston is given a reasonable opportunity of examining such Hardware; and
- (d) the Customer (if asked to do so by Boston) returns such Hardware to Boston's place of business at the Customer's cost and risk undamaged, complete and identified in accordance with Boston's instructions and within 14 days of receipt of Boston's authorisation,

Boston shall use all reasonable efforts, at its option, repair or replace the defective Hardware, or refund the price of the defective Hardware in full, and any return of Hardware to the Customer as part of a valid warranty claim shall be at the cost and risk of Boston. All replaced Hardware will become Boston's property.

- 5.7 Boston will only issue an appropriate authorisation in the event that every opportunity has been given to investigate and resolve such defect, having reasonably used all its technical resources.
 - 5.8 In any case where Boston reasonably determines that the Hardware is not defective within the terms of the warranty, the Customer will pay Boston all costs of handling, transportation and repairs at Boston's then prevailing rates.
 - 5.9 Boston shall not be liable for the Hardware's failure to comply with the warranty set out in clause 5.4 if:
 - (a) the Customer makes any further use of such Hardware after giving a notice in accordance with clause 5.6; or
 - (b) the defect arises because the Customer failed to follow Boston's oral or written instructions as to the storage, installation, commissioning, use or maintenance of the Hardware or (if there are none) good trade practice regarding the same; or
 - (c) the defect arises as a result of Boston following any drawing, design or specification supplied by the Customer; or
 - (d) the Customer alters or repairs such Hardware without the written consent of Boston; or
 - (e) the defect arises as a result of fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence, or abnormal working conditions; or
 - (f) the Hardware differs from the description or the Order or SoW as a result of changes made to ensure compliance with applicable statutory or regulatory requirements.
 - 5.10 Except as provided in this clause 5, Boston shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of any failure to comply with the warranty set out in clause 5.4.
 - 5.11 In the case of any return of Hardware otherwise than in compliance with the requirements of this clause 5:
 - (a) Boston may use reasonable attempts at its sole discretion and without responsibility to the Customer to invite the Customer by written notice to:
 - (i) correct any such non-compliance and to progress a warranty claim; or
 - (ii) collect the returned Hardware at its own expense by arrangement with Boston; or
 - (b) the return of Hardware which cannot be identified to a Customer, or failure by a Customer to carry out any correction or collection as requested by Boston, will be deemed as acceptance by such Customer that the returned Hardware may be treated as unsolicited goods and disposed of by Boston as it thinks fit (including return to stock and resale for Boston's sole benefit).
 - 5.12 The warranty set out in these Terms and Conditions shall be for the benefit only of the Customer and not for any end user of the Products or other third party.
- 6. Title and risk
- 6.1 The risk in the Products shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.
 - 6.2 No title or ownership of any Software supplied under the Contract and licensed to the Customer under any Licence Agreement is transferred to the Customer.
 - 6.3 Title to the Hardware shall not pass to the Customer until the earlier of:

- (a) receipt by Boston of payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) for the Products and any other goods and services that Boston has supplied to the Customer in respect of which payment has become due including any interest, VAT, and other sums payable, in which case title to the Products shall pass at the time of payment of all such sums; and
- (b) resale of the Products by the Customer, in which case title to the Hardware resold shall pass to the Customer at the time specified in clause 6.5.

6.4 Until title has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall hold the Products on a fiduciary basis and:

- (a) store the Products (at no cost to Boston) separately from all other items held by the Customer so that they remain readily identifiable as Boston's property;
- (b) not remove, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the Products;
- (c) maintain the Products in satisfactory condition and keep them insured against all risks for their full price on Boston's behalf from the date of delivery;
- (d) notify Boston immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 15.1(a) to clause 15.1(c); and
- (e) give Boston such information as Boston may reasonably require from time to time relating to:
 - (i) the Products; and
 - (ii) the ongoing financial position of the Customer.

6.5 Subject to clause 6.6, the Customer may resell or use the Products in the ordinary course of its business (but not otherwise) before Boston receives payment for the Products. However, if the Customer resells the Products before that time:

- (a) it does so as principal and not as Boston's agent; and
- (b) title to the Products shall pass from Boston to the Customer immediately before the time at which resale by the Customer occurs; and
- (c) the Customer shall account to Boston for the proceeds of sale or otherwise of the Products, whether tangible or intangible, including insurance proceeds, and shall keep all such proceeds separate from any monies or property of the Customer and third parties and in the case of tangible proceeds properly stored, protected and insured.

6.6 At any time before title to the Hardware passes to the Customer, Boston may:

- (a) by notice in writing, terminate the Customer's right under clause 6.5 to resell the Products or use them in the ordinary course of its business; and
- (b) require the Customer to deliver up all Products in its possession that have not been resold, or irrevocably incorporated into another product and if the Customer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Products are stored in order to recover them, notwithstanding that they may contain software and data. All costs incurred by Boston in repossessing the Products shall be borne by the Customer.

6.7 The Customer shall not be entitled to pledge, create a lien over or in any way charge by way of security for any indebtedness any of the Products which remain the property of Boston, but if the Customer does so all moneys owing by the Customer to Boston shall (without limiting any other right or remedy of Boston) forthwith become due and payable.

6.8 Boston's rights under this clause 6 shall continue until full payment is received and title has passed to the Customer.

7. Supply of Services

7.1 Warranty and technical support services are subject to the terms set out in Boston's Warranty Services document: (<https://www.boston.co.uk/about/services/warranty/default.aspx>). Any additional Hardware warranty and support services are described on the Invoice.

7.2 All Services provided by Boston will be set out in a Statement of Work. The SoW will outline an exhaustive list of deliverables agreed between Boston and Customer. The signed SoW's terms and conditions shall prevail over these Terms and Conditions.

7.3 Boston shall supply the Services to the Customer in accordance with the Statement of Work in all material respects.

- 7.4 Boston shall use its reasonable endeavours to:
- (a) ensure that the Services are supplied within a reasonable time frame, subject to limitations provided in the Statement of Work, and any dates shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence for the performance of the Services;
 - (b) ensure that the Services are supplied with reasonable skill and care.

- 7.6 Boston may, at its own discretion, appoint a suitably qualified and skilled engineer or consultant to perform the Services as agreed in the SoW. In such cases, both parties will work together in good faith to agree on an alternative date for the Training. Boston shall not be liable for any costs or losses incurred as a result of such rescheduling.

- (a) any factor beyond the control of Boston (including foreign exchange fluctuations, increases in taxes and duties, and increases in labour, materials and other manufacturing costs);
- (b) any request by the Customer to change the delivery date(s), quantities or types of Products or Services ordered, or the SoW; or 9.6 Invoices and pro forma invoices are due immediately upon receipt. The Customer shall pay each Invoice and pro forma invoice submitted by Boston in full and in cleared funds to a bank account nominated in writing by Boston, and time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract.

9.7 The contents of an Invoice, including inter alia the Price, shall, in the absence of manifest error, be deemed to have been accepted by the Customer unless the Customer has notified Boston in writing within 2 Business Days of receipt of the Invoice that the relevant Invoice is disputed.

9.8 All amounts payable by the Customer under the Contract are exclusive of value-added tax (VAT), which shall be charged in accordance with applicable law. Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by Boston to the Customer, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from Boston, pay such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are legally chargeable on the supply of the Services or Goods. This clause shall not apply where the Customer is VAT-exempt or otherwise not liable to pay VAT under applicable VAT legislation.

9.9 If the Customer fails to make a payment due to Boston under the Contract by the due date, then, without limiting Boston's remedies under clause 15, the Customer shall pay interest on the overdue sum from the due date until payment of the overdue sum, whether before or after judgment. Interest under this clause 9.9 will accrue each day at 8% a year above the Bank of England's base rate from time to time, but at 8% a year for any period when that base rate is below 0%.

 - (b) Boston:
 - (i) will keep the Personal Data reasonably confidential and reasonably secure from disclosure to unauthorised third parties; and
 - (ii) will Process that Personal Data only in accordance with the instructions of the Customer (and Processing necessary to comply with this Agreement shall be deemed to be an instruction).
 - (c) The Customer will obtain and maintain all appropriate notifications and consents under Data Protection Legislation in order to allow Boston to Process the Personal Data that it is required to Process as part of performing its obligations under this Agreement without such Processing contravening the Data Protection Legislation.

- 11.3 Both Parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. This clause 11 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a party's obligations or rights under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 11.4 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 11.2, the Customer will ensure that it has all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the Personal Data to Boston and/or lawful collection of the Personal Data by Boston on behalf of the Customer for the duration and purposes of the Contract.
- 11.5 Either party may, at any time on not less than 30 days' notice, revise this clause 11 by replacing it with any applicable controller to processor standard clauses or similar terms adopted under the Data Protection Legislation or forming part of an applicable certification scheme (which shall apply when replaced by attachment to the Contract).
- 11.6 Subject to the terms of this clause 11, Boston uses the services of credit insurance agencies and cheque guarantee companies, and therefore Customer details may be divulged as required by such companies. This information will be stored in their databases and may be exchanged with other credit reference agencies.
- 12. Confidentiality
- 12.1 Each party undertakes that it shall not at any time not withstanding termination or expiry of the Contract, disclose to any person any confidential information concerning the business, assets, affairs, customers, clients or suppliers of the other party or of any member of the group of companies to which the other party belongs, except as permitted by clause 12.2.
- 12.2 Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information:
- (a) to its employees, officers, representatives, contractors or subcontracts or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of exercising the party's rights or carrying out its obligations under or in connection with the Contract. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's confidential information comply with this clause 12; and
 - (b) as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.
- 12.3 No party shall use any other party's confidential information for any purpose other than to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under or in connection with the Contract.
- 13. Limitation of liability
- 13.1 The limits and exclusions in this clause 13 reflect the insurance cover Boston has been able to arrange, and the Customer is responsible for making its own arrangements for the insurance of any excess liability.
- 13.2 References to liability in this clause 13 include every kind of liability arising under or in connection with the Contract including liability in contract, tort (including negligence), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise.
- 13.3 Neither party may benefit from the limitations and exclusions set out in this clause 13 in respect of any liability arising from its deliberate default.
- 13.4 Nothing in the Contract limits any liability which cannot legally be limited, including liability for:
- (a) death or personal injury caused by negligence;
 - (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
 - (c) breach of the terms implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 or section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 (title and quiet possession); and

15. Termination

- 15.1 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
- (a) the other party takes any step or action in connection with its entering administration, provisional liquidation or any composition or arrangement with its creditors (other than in relation to a solvent restructuring), obtaining a moratorium, being wound up (whether voluntarily or by order of the court, unless for the purpose of a solvent restructuring), having a receiver appointed to any of its assets or ceasing to carry on business [or, if the step or action is taken in another jurisdiction, in connection with any analogous procedure in the relevant jurisdiction];
 - (b) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business; or
 - (c) the other party's financial position deteriorates so far as to reasonably justify the opinion that its ability to give effect to the terms of the Contract is in jeopardy.
- 15.2 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, Boston may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Customer if:
- (a) the Customer fails to pay any amount due under any contract with Boston on the due date for payment; or
 - (b) any information obtained through Boston's Know Your Customer (KYC) checks, whether conducted before or during the term of the Contract, reveals that Boston is legally or regulatorily prohibited from doing business with the Customer, or that continuing to do business with the Customer would pose a material risk of non-compliance with applicable laws, regulations, or Boston's internal compliance policies.
- 15.3 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, Boston may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Customer if the Customer fails to pay any amount due under the Contract on the due date for payment:
- 15.4 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, Boston may suspend the supply of Services or all further deliveries of Products or any rights granted by License Agreements under the Contract or any other contract between the Customer and Boston if the Customer fails to pay any amount due under the Contract on the due date for payment, the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 15.1(a) to clause 15.1(c), or Boston reasonably believes that the Customer is about to become subject to any of them. Boston shall be entitled to recover from the Customer all costs which it reasonably incurs as a consequence of such suspension.

16. Consequences of termination

- 16.1 On termination of the Contract:
- (a) the Customer shall immediately pay to Boston all of Boston's outstanding unpaid Invoices and interest and, in respect of Services and Products supplied but for which no Invoice has been submitted, Boston shall submit an Invoice, which shall be payable by the Customer immediately on receipt;
 - (b) the Customer shall return all of the Materials and any deliverables or Products which have not been fully paid for. If the Customer fails to do so, then Boston may enter the Customer's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned, the Customer shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose not connected with this Contract.
- 16.2 Termination or expiry of the Contract shall not affect any rights, remedies, obligations and liabilities of the Parties that have accrued up to the date of termination or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry.
- 16.3 Any provision of the Contract that expressly or by implication is intended to have effect after termination or expiry shall continue in full force and effect.

17. Force majeure

18.3 Severance. If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed deleted, but that shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract. If any provision or part provision of the Contract is deemed deleted under this clause 18.3 the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree a replacement provision that, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the commercial result of the original provision.

18.4 Waiver. Failure by either party at any time to enforce any of the provisions of the Contract shall not be construed as a waiver by that party of any such provisions nor in any way affect the validity of the Contract.

18.5 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the Parties, constitute either party the agent of the other, or authorise either party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party.
